

I've been Waiting...

Words and Lyrics by Emma Rowland

Dedicated to the members of the 2020 Sing out Strong Virtual Choir

When the world went into lockdown, our lives were put on hold.

Families were torn apart.
Grandchildren couldn't hug their grandparents.
Friends couldn't laugh together in a bar or park.
Lovers couldn't share one last kiss.

And so we waited.
Waited to open our doors and step back into the world.
Waited for one more hug, one more laugh, one more kiss.

Waited until now.

I've been Waiting...

Emma Rowland

♩ = 124

14 A mf

I've been wait - ing,- just to show you that I care.---

25

One more wish, one more chance, one more hour in your arms, one more day, one more thing to say: I've been wait - ing,- wait - ing to be there. I've been wait - ing,- for the long - est time to see. I've been dream - ing, dream - ing you were here with me. All our life, in pa - ges cast a - way, the pa - pers all un - read.

30 B

38

45 C f

— A sto - ry for an - o - ther - day, a thou - sand things un - said. I've been wait - ing,- just to tell you that I love you. I've been wait - ing,- just to show you that I care.---

51

57

One more look, one more start, one more dance in the dark, one more day, one more thing to say: I've been

62 D p

wait - ing,- wait - ing to be there. Ah

68

Ah

74 ff

B. Ah I've been

80 E

B. wait - ing, just to tell you that I love you. I've been wait - ing, just to show you that I care.

86 f

B. I've been wait - ing,

93 f

B. Wait - ing to be there. Wait - ing to be there.

99 f

B. Wait - ing to be there.

102

B.